Castor Oil

Completely liquid, yellow in color, odorless, and thick and sticky in consistency. It has many known health benefits but it's prized for creating glowing skin and long shiny hair and eyelashes.

RECOMMENDED USES:

HAIR CONDITIONER

Use as a deep conditioner for hair. Castor oil protects and hydrates the hair shaft from within to repair damage help it to retain protein and shine. After shampooing, massage castor oil into hair and scalp. Optionally add 1-2 tbsp of castor oil to your favorite conditioner Leave in for 3-5 minutes and rinse.

HAIR GROWTH

When used regularly, castor oil can improve blood circulation resulting in stronger, thicker, healthier hair. Massage the castor oil into the scalp with gentle pressure for 10 minutes, 3-4 times per week. The oil is naturally sticky and is requires a few rounds of shampoo. But after the residue is rinsed off, you are left with strong, smooth and nourished hair.

GROW LONG LASHES

Castor Oil is a natural remedy capable of helping you achieve gorgeous, long lashes. It's rich in ricinoleic acid, a chemical compound that is known to help reverse hair loss. Castor Oil is effective for thickening eyelashes as well as preventing them from breaking.

WHOLE-BODY MOISTURIZER

Castor Oil has healing properties great for addressing inflammation from sunburn, acne, and dry skin. Lightly apply castor oil onto affected areas as needed. It also penetrates the pores, stimulating the production of collagen and elastin. This helps to soften and hydrate the skin, reducing the appearance of lines and wrinkles.
